FAQs:

1. I plan to take the exam this semester, but I'm not registered for PHIL 998A/B Doctoral Comps in Cardinal Station ... what should I do? Be sure to register before the add/drop deadline on January 25, 2019. If you have any questions about whether you should register for 998A or 998B, just email ocommorc@cu.edu.

Regarding Fail Attempts: If you are registered but decide not to take the exam, this will not count as one of your two permitted attempts. However, if you decide not to take the exam after registering to do so, please email ocommorc@cu.edu prior to the exam registration deadline.

2. I have a text I've been studying from, but it isn't on the list of approved editions. I can make a really good case for why I should still be allowed to use it. Who has the power to approve my request to use this text on exam day? If you're taking list I, speak with the list I graders; if you're taking list II, speak with the list II graders; if you're taking list III, speak with the list III graders, and the earlier, the better! To see the list of approved editions, please go to the School of Philosophy's website or click here.

3. How do I get special accommodations for the exam? Please contact Disability Support Services to make arrangements. You can find more information on their website: <http://dss.cu.edu>

4. I have a different question that isn't answered above; where can I find the answer to that? You might be able to find it on our website under the PhD program overview, or on our Reading List Examinations Policy. If these resources don't answer your questions, just ask the Dean's Office.
